LB 49, 189

we could vote and not talk too much about what our feelings are when we come to the second group of Final Reading.

PRESIDENT: Senator Wesely.

SENATOR WESELY: Yes, Mr. President, Senator Nichol, on 218 I understand why you are holding it over but there is an amendment I would like to offer to that at this time and it won't need to be read then if we could have the amendment taken up and then pass over it after that. Is that all right, Senator Nichol? Thank you, if that would be okay.

PRESIDENT: We will proceed then with LB 49. All members are properly to be in your seats during Final Reading. Unauthorized personnel are to be off the floor of the Legislature and whenever our membership gets seated and in order, why the Clerk will begin the Final Reading of LB 49.
